In Answer to Critics by Pastor Arnold B. Murray I make it a policy to never mention individual denominations, groups or single out individuals by name; however, since 1991 several so called "Christian Research" organizations have willingly quoted each others falsehoods and labels, without direct research, until they are blindly printing outright lies. This has gone on long enough now that I ...

by Matt Slick 11/24/08. Jesus is the most important person who has ever lived since he is the Savior, God in human flesh. He is not half God and half man. He is fully divine and fully man. In other words, Jesus has two distinct natures: divine and human. Jesus is the Word who was God and was with God and was made flesh (John 1:1, 14).
