Super Great Book - it is the kind of book you can read "one page at a time" since the author covers a different subject or question every one or two pages. He answers a lot of fun questions and the kind of questions that we have all wondered about in the past but never took the time to dig out the research and find the answer. You will love it.

Jesus is never mentioned in the Book of Isaiah by name nor in any way that could unambiguously identify him. Matthew's Gospel refers to Isaiah, verse 7:14, saying that a virgin was prophesied to conceive and bear a child. However, this is only to be found in the Septuagint, a flawed, early Greek translation of the Hebrew scriptures.
