I've said before (e.g. here) that IELTS writing is more like "high school" writing than university-level academic writing. If you'd like to know more about the difference between IELTS writing and university writing, have a look at this website, by an English teacher called Lander Hawes. I allowed Lander to use some of my essays and to rewrite parts of them in a "university assignment" style.

To know whether you should read the IELTS Reading passage first or the questions first, experiment with both strategies and see what works best for you. Many students have found it helps to skim through the questions first to get an idea of what to pay attention to in the reading passage. This method may work for you too, but in reality, it depends on a number of factors.
