Confidence in Congress." Why do you believe Congress receives such a low confidence rating? Primarily, I think the lack of confidence in Congress reflects how citizens feel about most major U.S. institutions that affect our daily lives. Their inability to come together as a unified country to do what's best for its people have been deplorable. They allow their personal feelings of who is in ...

Not a very good teacher. Talks to the beginning and til' the end of class then will hold up class by taking attendance. Majority of his class got F's (class averages were in the 40's) on his first exam, and instead of changing the way he teaches, he tells the class to put more effort in. Notes will help, but most of it will be useless.
