A key part of the Senate tax bill is repeal of the individual health insurance mandate. The budget scoring relies on this repeal reducing Federal deficits by $318 billion — and the bulk of these spending cuts would hit lower-income families. Republicans argue, however, that these families won't really be hurt, because they'll be making a voluntary choice not to be covered and collect ...

Substitutability of factors and commodities. Trade in goods and services can to some extent be considered a substitute for factor movements. In the absence of trade barriers, even when factors are not mobile, there is a tendency toward factor price equalization. In the absence of barriers to factor mobility, commodity prices will move toward equalization, even if commodities may not freely move.

1. Introduction. The failure by leading economists to incorporate banking in their economic theories has been identified as a significant and costly weakness (Werner, Richard A., 1997, Werner, Richard A., 2005, Kohn, Donald, 2009). Likewise, it has been pointed out that the macro-economic feedback of banking activity had been neglected in finance research (Werner, 2012).
