My advise is not to focus too much on doing exams but on focusing more on concepts you don't understand. I did my first Schweser exam one month ago just after I finished reading and did another one two weeks later to find my weaknesses. Since then I focused on all the stuff I didn't understand and I also made a lot of flashcards.

Level I: January 2, 2016 was the first Saturday of the year and the start of my Level I studies. At the time, I was working in real estate equity research and my hours during the work week prevented me from studying daily. So, 75% of my Level I studying was done every Saturday and Sunday leading up to the exam (generally 6-8 hours each day, starting around 9 am and finishing by 5 pm).
