Having piloted whole-class reading lessons in Year Four, our headteacher was keen to roll it out across the school. Currently, all of our Key Stage Two are now teaching reading like this with two or three lessons each week, each lasting an hour.

Mrs P Teach: Whole Class Guided Reading: How does it work?

Reading is the complex cognitive process of decoding symbols to derive meaning. It is a form of language processing.. Success in this process is measured as reading comprehension. Reading is a means for language acquisition, communication, and sharing information and ideas. The symbols are typically visual (written or printed) but may be tactile (). Like all languages, it is a complex ...

This all makes reading strategies somewhat content area specific. Stopping (maybe the most undervalued strategy ever) and Rereading might make more sense in science, while Visualization and Text Connections may make more sense reading literary works. Questioning the Text may make equal sense in both.. But if you'd like to start with a basic set of strategies, you could do worse than the ...
